Privacy and Access to Information:

Personal information collected on this form is collected under the authority of sections 26 (c) and (e) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and is subject to all the provisions of that Act. The personal information collected will be used by the Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction, its service providers and associates of those service providers to administer WorkBC Employment Services. Your personal information may also be used by the Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction to evaluate WorkBC Employment Services. If you have any questions about the collection of your personal information, please contact:

General

This application form must be used to apply for the service indicated above. The date your application is received by the WorkBC Employment Services contractor is when you are considered to have requested assistance for the purposes of determining your eligibility under the service.

Income Tax

Financial Supports are subject to the Income Tax Act (Canada).

Proof of Personal Investment

You must provide evidence of a personal investment in your Self-Employment venture. This investment must equal a minimum of 25% of the total of your financial support you receive. For example, if you are an Active EI claimant the 25% would be based on the amount of EI Benefits plus the financial support provided by the EPBC Contractor.

Example: The applicant receives $300/wk in EI Benefits, which would be a total of $14,400 for the 48wks of the SE. The applicant must contribute a personal investment of $3,600 (equal to 25%) in cash or in kind.

The following examples could be considered as proof of investment:

- (1) a bank statement indicating available funds for the proposed venture;
- (2) evidence of a loan or line of credit;
- (3) cash or in-kind contributions, such as proof of ownership of equipment or materials that will assist you in your business.
